NEWPORT

Mr. F. E. Snow's Bereavement. - The sincere sympathy of his many friends has been extended to Mr. F. E. Snow, of 3 York-road, secretary of Messrs. H. W. Morey and Sons, in the death of his wife, which occurred on Friday week after a long illness. Mrs. Snow had been an invalid for 14 years and her patience and cheerfulness under suffering had been an inspiration to all who were brought into contact with her. She was a daughter of the late Mr. W. Attrill, of Goldings, Carisbrooke, a sister of Mrs. J. B. Alderslade, and a lady who was admired as an ideal wife and mother. Sympathy is also felt with her only daughter (Mrs. W. S. Warne) and her two sons. The funeral took place on Tuesday, a service being held at St. John's Church and the interment at Carisbrooke Cemetery. The Rev. W. H. Mackinnon (vicar) officiated and the organist (Miss D. Weby-Pryer, L.R.A.M.) accompanied the deceased's favourite hymn "Abide with me" and played "I know that my Redeemer liveth" and "O rest in the Lord." The chief mourners were the bereaved husband, Messrs. W. A. and W. K. Snow (sons), Mr. W. S. Warne (son-in-law), Mrs. W. A. Snow (daughter-in-law), Mrs. J. B. Alderslade (sister), Mr. G. Attrill (brother), Miss Snow and Mrs. A. Snow (sisters-in-law), Mr. F. Attrill (nephew), Mrs. W. Upton, Mrs. Watts, and the Misses Alderslade, Attrill, and E. M., and H. Snow (nieces). Mrs. Warne and Mrs. W. K. Snow were unavoidably prevented from attending. Others present at the church were Mr. J. F. Jackson (assistant secretary of the I.W. Natural History Society, also representing the secretary, Miss Morey), Mr. and Mrs. W. Upward, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Buckett (the former also representing Mr. Avery A. Whitfield), Mesdames A. A. Spanner, Gray, and S. and E. Barton, and Messrs. W. Upton, R. J. Eldridge, H. H. and A. B. Gould, F. Cooper, A. Denham, R. A. H. Sibley, and W. G. Sibbick.

Messrs. H. and F. Damp made the arrangements - Mr. F. E. Snow wishes to thank Drs. Straton and Bruce for their skilled care and attention, also very many friends for messages of sympathy and beautiful floral tributes. Will all please accept this acknowledgment.
