

Fred Billows

Isle of Wight County Press – 14 January 1933

NEWPORT

OBITUARY. - We regret to announce the death of Mr. Fred Billows, aged 77, which occurred at 135 Carisbrooke-road on Wednesday. The deceased, who was a native of Poole, had a long connection with the Island. He was at one time the licensee of the Pembroke Hotel, Southampton, where he was well known and much respected. He afterwards kept licensed houses in Cowes and Newport, and for some seven years was employed at the Carisbrooke Brewery when owned by the late Mr. C. J. Dashwood. He had been hon. treasurer of the I.W. Licensed Victuallers Society and was one of the oldest members of the Earl Yarborough Lodge of Oddfellows and a prominent member of the Newport Literary Society. The funeral service will be held at Carisbrooke Church to-day (Saturday), at 3.

Isle of Wight County Press – 21 January 1933

NEWPORT

THE FUNERAL – of Mr. Fred Billows, whose death was recorded last week, took place on Saturday, the first part of the service being conducted in Carisbrooke Parish Church by the Rev. H. S. Footman, R.D. (vicar). The mourners were Miss Underwood (niece), Mr. J. Way, and Mr. A. Self. There were also present Mesdames Long, Jupe, and Dawkins, the Misses Lambert and Flux, and Messrs. E. R. Dore, T.C., A. D. Callaway, and J. Killeen. The deceased formerly resided in the private house adjoining the Carisbrooke Brewery Bar, of which he was the licensee. Mr. W. Blake, J.P., T.C., was unable to attend the funeral. – Miss Underwood, niece of the late Mr. Fred Billows, wishes to thank most sincerely all kind friends for inquires and letters of sympathy to her in her bereavement.

Transcription and research by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport & Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2022
<https://www.foncc.org.uk>