

Reginald George Blacktin

Isle of Wight County Press - 19 January 1980

NEWPORT

Mr. R. G. Blacktin - Mr. Reginald George Blacktin, of Heytesbury House, Worsley Road, Newport, died at his home. Mr. Blacktin had lived on the Island for 13 years. Before his retirement he had been manager of the Fatstock Marketing Corporation abattoir at Newport for ten years, prior to which he had been a salesman for the FMC at Wimborne, Dorset. He leaves a wife and daughter. The funeral service took place at Carisbrooke Chapel, and was conducted by the Rev. J. F. Buckett. Mourners included Mrs. Blacktin (widow), Mr. and Mrs. I. Brown (son-in-law and daughter), Mr. S. Ball (brother-in-law), Mrs. A. Malyon (sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. J. Faulkner, Mr. and Mrs. F. Finmore, Mr. and Mrs. B. Squires and Mr. and Mrs. B. Wynn (brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. J. Hayles, Mr. R. Barnett, Mr. C. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. H. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. J. Salmon, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Spencer. Organisations represented were the IW Meat Traders' Association, IW Quality Pork Group, FMC Newprt, FMC Wimborne, FMC Knightsbridge, FMC Southern Region, Newport Conservative Club, Bennett and Hamilton, and two Newport based butchery businesses Messrs. E. Downer and S. Stevens. Funeral arrangements were made by Messrs. Hamilton and Marshall.

Transcription by Kate MacDonell for the Friends of Newport and Carisbrooke Cemeteries, © 2023 <https://www.foncc.org.uk>