

William Henry Cantelo

Isle of Wight County Press 26 March 1921

NEWPORT

DEATH OF MR. W. H. CANTELO.---The death occurred, at 31 West-street, on Sunday, of a respected townsman, Mr. William Henry Cantelo, at the age of 59. Deceased had been a valued employee of Messrs. R. Bird Cheverton and Co., Ltd., as a coach-trimmer, for 46 years, and was held in much esteem by his employers and fellow workmen. He was also one of the senior members of the Earl Yarborough Lodge of Oddfellows. The funeral took place at Carisbrooke cemetery on Thursday, the Rev. W. H. Mackinnon officiating. The mourners were Mesdames Williams and Hamilton (sisters), and Messrs. F. Williams, O. C. Hamilton, and G. Adams (brothers-in-law). Fellow employees (Messrs. E. Williams, E. Blee, R. Whittington and Farley) acted as bearers, and the wreaths included tributes from Mr. and Mrs. R. Bird Cheverton and family, the employees, and the "Sir John Barleycorn" Club.----- Mrs. Cantelo wishes to return thanks for the numerous kindly inquiries and expressions of sympathy with her in her heavy bereavement, and also for the floral tributes.

Transcription by Jeremy Hallam for the Friends of Newport & Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2023
<https://www.foncc.org.uk>