Charles Cooke

1921 Census - Castle View, Nr Newport I W

Charles Cooke	Head	76Y7M	Dealer & Butcher (Retired)	Brighstone, Hampshire
Lucy Cooke	Wife	77 Y9M	Home Duties	Carisbrooke, Hampshire
Charles Stewart Burt	Boarder	27Y10M	Butcher - Own Account	Carisbrooke, Hampshire
Harry Reginald Burt	Boarder	22Y5M	Butcher - Own Account	Carisbrooke, Hampshire

Isle of Wight County Press – 20 December 1924

CARISBROOKE

DEATH OF MR. C. COOKE.—The death took place on Saturday at his residence, Castle View, at the age of 80, of Mr. Charles Cooke, who has been prominently associated with the business life of the village for many years as joint proprietor of the butchers' business (Messrs. Cooke and Burt) in High-street. Mr. Cooke and his partner (Mr. H. Burt) took over this business from Mr. J. Lockhart about 20 years ago. Mr. Cooke was also more widely known as a cattle dealer, and was held in much esteem by Island agriculturists. The funeral took place at Carisbrooke Cemetery on Thursday, the Vicar (the Rev. H. S. Footman) officiating. The mourners were : Mr. Harry Burt (son-in-law), Messrs. Charles and Reginald Burt (grandchildren), Messrs. G. Cooke and G. and S. Sheath (nephews), and Messrs. S. Ramage, W. Westmore, T. F. Blake, H. and J. Kurley, B. Sanders, C.C., W. Griffin, and F. W. Dudley, A. Hallett, and R. Boyes (of Eastleigh). There were many beautiful floral tributes from relatives and friends. Mr. O. Hamilton made the arrangements.

Transcription by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport and Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2026
https://www.foncc.org.uk