NEWPORT

Death of Mr. A. J. Coward.- The death took place on Monday, of Mr. Alfred James Coward, aged 56, of Chapel-street, who for over 20 years assisted his brother (Mr. F. G. Coward) in the oil and ironmongery business of Messrs. A. Coward and Son in Nodehill. In his earlier years Mr. Coward was employed by the late Mr. John Roach at Westmill, and also by the Cowes Co-operative Society. He was a member of the Salvation Army and a bandsman for many years. He leaves a widow, one son and two daughters. The funeral took place on Thursday, the service being at the Salvation Army Citadel and the interment at Newport Cemetery. The mourners were Mr. A. Coward (son), Mr. and Mrs. A. Millership, and Mrs. Mew (son-in-law and daughters), Messrs. F. G. and E. Coward (brothers), G. Coward (nephew), and H. Thompson (brother-in-law). Messrs. O. C. Hamilton and Son made the arrangements.
