Charles Henry Dall

Isle of Wight County Press – 27 July 1935

NEWPORT

OBITUARY.—The death of Mr. Charles Henry Dall, 64, of 33 Trafalgar-road, occurred on Thursday week. The deceased, an ex-master gunner of the R.G.A., and formerly in the Prison Service, had latterly been employed at the local branch of the Westminster Bank. He was a member of the Conservative Club.

The funeral service was held at St. John's Church on Sunday, the Rev. W. H. Mackinnon officiating, and the interment followed at Carisbrooke Cemetery. The mourners were Messrs. A. H., J., and H. Dall (sons), A. Dall (brother), C. Masterson (son-in-law), A. E. Whitewood and W. Whitewood (brothers-in-law), Mrs. W. Whitewood (sister-in-law), Mrs. Morris and Miss Barnes (nieces), and Messrs. H. F. and A. Whitewood (nephews). Among those present at the service were Mr. R. H. Pritchard (manager of the Westminster Bank) and Mrs. Pritchard.

Transcription by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport and Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2026
https://www.foncc.org.uk