

William Sampson Harbor

Isle of Wight County Press - 23 February 1963

Former Business Man's Death – The death occurred at the Royal I.W. County Hospital, Ryde, on Wednesday, of Mr. William Sampson Harbor, aged 67, of Ambleside, Albany Road. A native of the town, Mr. Harbor was for many years employed at the East Cowes and Forest Side works of Messrs. Saunders-Roe. Since 1932 he had been the proprietor of a sweet and confectionery shop at 63a Pyle Street, where he lived until his retirement, moving to Albany Road two years ago. Mr. Harbor is survived by his wife and two sons. The funeral service will take place at Quay Street Methodist Church today at 2 p.m.

Isle of Wight County Press - 2 March 1963

NEWPORT

The Late Mr. W. S. Harbor. – The funeral took place on Saturday of Mr. William Sampson Harbor, of Ambleside, Albany Road. The Rev. G. L. W. Ridge officiated at Quay Street Methodist Church. The family mourners were Mrs. E. Harbor (widow), Messrs. W. E. and K. A. Harbor (sons), Mr. and Mrs. A. Harbor (brother and sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. E. Doel (nephew and nieces), Mr. C. Corney (brother-in-law), Mr. S. W. Wendes (cousin), and Miss E. Jackson. Also represented were former colleagues at Saunders-Roe and neighbours and friends from Pyle Street and Albany Road, who also sent floral tributes. Interment was in Carisbrooke Cemetery. Messrs. O. C. Hamilton and Son made the arrangements.

Transcription by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport & Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2022
<https://www.foncc.org.uk>