

George Henry Henton

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS - 10 April 1909

CHILLERTON

DEATH OF MR. G. H. HENTON. - We regret to record the death, which took place at Loverstone Farm on Thursday, after a brief illness, of Mr. George H. Henton, aged 65, the genial occupier for so many years of that farm and a well-known and esteemed tenant of the Seely Estate. The funeral will take place at Carisbrooke Cemetery to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, at 2.30.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS - 17 April 1909

CHILLERTON

FUNERAL OF MR. G. H. HENTON. – The funeral of Mr. George Henry Henton, of Loverstone Farm, whose sad and somewhat sudden death we recorded last week, took place in the presence of a large gathering of his agricultural colleagues at Carisbrooke Cemetery on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. P. Cudmore (United Methodist) officiating. The family mourners were Mrs. H. J. Morris, Appuldurcombe (daughter), Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Morgan, Ramsdown (son-in-law and daughter), Mr. Hilton Henton, Appuldurcombe (son), Mr. A. Henton, Rill (son) and Mrs. Henton, Mrs. C. H. Cowdery (daughter) and Mr. C. H. Cowdery, Mr. Victor Henton (son), Mr. and Mrs. A. Westmore, Mr. F. J. Denham, and Messrs. Osmond, Douglas, and Alvin Morris. Others present included Col. H. G. Gore Browne, V.C., (representing the Seely Estate), Dr. Raymond, and Messrs. R. Woodward, Andrew Morris, H. M. Morris, F. Morris, G. H. Brannon, J. H. Russell, M. Russell, E. C. M. Baulkwill, E. and S. Allen, W. Phillips, G. Linington, J. Coles, H. Kerley, R. and O. Sprake, G. Williams, Andrew Cheek, F. Barnes, L. C. Niblett, and F. Cheek. Messrs. C. Jackman and H. H. Russell represented the Sunflower Club. ... The breastplate on the coffin bore the inscription “George Henry Henton, died April 8th, 1909, aged 65 years.” Mr. J. H. King, of Blackwater carried out the funeral arrangements.

*Transcribed by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport & Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2022
<https://www.foncc.org.uk>*