

Arthur Anton Hess

Isle of Wight County Press – 6 November 1965

NEWPORT

Former Cement Works Engineer.- Mr. Arthur Anton Frank Hess, aged 69, of 23 Station Street, Lewes, Sussex, formerly of Kewayden, Cowes Road, died at the Victoria Hospital, Lewes, on Monday week after a long illness. Mr. Hess was formerly employed as engineer at the Vectis Cement Works. Prior to its closing down, he took over the management in 1947 of the Liberty Lime Company, Lewes, in conjunction with Sir Gilbert Davies. Mr. Hess, who retired two years ago, was also a skilful model engineer and several of his models were purchased by Americans. He was a former member of the Gliding Club. Interment took place at Carisbrooke Cemetery on Friday week following a service conducted by the Rev. G. L. W. Ridge (superintendent Methodist minister). The mourners were Mrs. Hess (widow), Mr. W. G. Bartlett and Mr. and Mrs. F. Attrill (brothers-in-law and sister-in-law), Mrs. P. B. Green (niece), Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. J. McDine.

Transcription by Kate MacDonell for the Friends of Newport and Carisbrooke Cemeteries, © 2023 <https://www.foncc.org.uk>