DEATH OF MR. E. HIBBARD.- Much regret is felt at the sad death at the early age of 44 of Mr. Edgar F. Hibbard, which occurred on Thursday after a rather short illness, and sincere sympathy is extended to his widow. Mr. Hibbard for many years assisted his late father, Mr. Frederick Hibbard, in the business of baker and grocer in the High Street, and on his father's death in February last he took over the concern. He was much esteemed by the wide circle of friends he made over a large district when acting as a roundsman for his father, and by all who came in contact with him since he succeeded to the business. The funeral will be in Monday afternoon.
