NEWPORT

The Late Miss F. K. Leal. – The death took place suddenly at Gillingham, Kent, on Sunday week, of Miss Florence Kate Leal, aged 60, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Leal, of Thornclose, Clarence Road. Miss Leal was a school teacher and after holding appointments at Ventnor and Bembridge, joined the staff of the Glencoe Road School, Chatham, where she remained until her retirement last summer. Before leaving the Island she was a member of St. John's Church, singing in the choir and teaching in the Sunday School.

The funeral was on Saturday at St. John's Church, the Rev. S. F. Cooper officiating and Miss D. Welby-Pryer, L.R.A.M. (organist) accompanying the singing. The principal mourners were Miss Mabel Leal (sister), Mr. and Mrs. H. J. T. Leal (nephew and niece, also representing Mr. W. O. Leal, brother, who was prevented from attending by ill-health), Mrs. G. Angell, Mrs. M. Lambert, and Mr. G. Barnes (cousins), Miss L. K. Moorcroft, Miss I. Welby-Pryer and Mrs. A. Chiles. The floral tributes included one from the teaching staff and scholars of the Glencoe Road School, Chatham.
