DEATH OF MISS MOORMAN.- Much sympathy has been expressed with Mr. and Mrs. James Moorman, of 42 Medina-avenue, in the sad bereavement which they have sustained by the death of their only daughter, Miss Kate Elizabeth Moorman, aged 39. She underwent an operation in St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London, and died there on Wednesday. With her parents she regularly attended and was an active worker at the Parish Church. She was for many years a Sunday-school teacher, rendered valuable help in Band of Hope work, and was a useful member of the local V.A.D. The funeral service will be held at the Parish Church at 3.15 on Monday, the interment following at Carisbrooke Cemetery.

THE FUNERAL - of Miss K. E. Moorman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Moorman, of 42 Medina-avenue, whose death was recorded last week, took place on Monday. The first part of the service was held in the Parish Church, the Rev. T. V. Ruddock (curate) officiating, assisted by the Rev. Miles Atkinson (vicar of St. Paul's St. Paul's, Barton). Miss M. Scadding was at the organ and played "I know that my Redeemer liveth," "Angels ever bright and fair," and other music before the service and "O rest in the Lord" as the cortege left the church. About 20 members of the I.W. (164) V.A.D. in charge of their commandant (Miss Long) formed a guard of honour at the entrance to the church. The coffin was covered with the Red Cross flag. The family mourners were Mr. and Mrs. James Moorman (parents), the Misses Moorman (aunts), R. Jackman and M. Jolliffe, Mr. E. Marsh and Mrs. Martin (cousins), Mrs Toogood, and Mrs. Holbrook. Those also present included Messrs. A. J. and A. H. Cross, F. Chiverton, E. White, E. Hazard, C. Damp, and S. Burgess, Mrs. C. E. Yelf, Mrs. F. E. Whitcher, Mrs. K. Lockhart, and Miss Q. Witham. The interment followed at Carisbrooke Cemetery.
