The Late Mrs. F. Print. – The death occurred on Monday, in the Frank James Hospital where she had been a patient for nearly seven months, of Mrs. Ella Dora Print, aged 63, of 24 Medina Road. A native of Newport, she was the wife of Mr. Frank Print who has been in business as a tobacconist and general dealer for about 40 years. She was also responsible for arranging the tea for children in the locality in connection with the victory celebrations after the last war, and she assisted her son, who is prominently associated with Messrs. J. S. White's Boatshop Caballeros, in various ways. The funeral took place yesterday when a service was held in Carisbrooke Church and interment followed in Carisbrooke Cemetery.
