

Fred Fielder Quinton

Isle of Wight County Press – 20 March 1948

NEWPORT.

Well known Photographer's Death. – The death occurred in a Shanklin nursing home yesterday (Friday) of Mr. Fred Fielder Quinton, of 86 High Street, aged 74. Mr. Quinton had been in business in the town as a photographer for about half a century, and had achieved an enviable reputation in his profession, being notably successful in child studies. In his early days he was a keen gymnast and for a time acted as instructor of the St. John's Men's Bible Class Gymnastic Class. He was a devoted member of the Brethren community at the Holyrood Hall. His wife died recently. The interment at Carisbrooke on Tuesday will be preceded by a service in Holyrood Hall at 2.30 p.m.

Isle of Wight County Press – 27 March 1948

NEWPORT.

The Late Mr. Fred Quinton. – The funeral of Mr. Fred Fielder Quinton, of 86 High Street, whose death at a Shanklin nursing home was recorded last week, took place on Tuesday. The service was held at the Holyrood Hall, where Mr. Quinton had been a devoted member of the Brethren community for many years, and the large attendance indicated the esteem in which he was held. The service was conducted by Mr. John Weston, of London, who was assisted by Mr. A. G. Taylor, of Croydon, and Mr. G. Watts, of London, Miss C. Quinton (niece) accompanied the singing of the hymns. The mourners were Mrs. G. F. Quinton (sister-in-law), Mr. W. Burke (brother-in-law), Mesdames P. Quinton, Jolly, and Lock, and the Misses E. and E. G. Barton (nieces) and Mr. N. Burke (nephew).

{only family mourners transcribed}

The interment followed at Carisbrooke Cemetery, and the floral tributes included a wreath from the Young People's Meeting. Mr. W. W. Wells made the arrangements.

unknown lady by Fred Quinton

Transcribed by Bob Jacobs for the Friends of Newport & Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2020

<https://www.foncc.org.uk>