NEWPORT

Former Whitecroft Cook.--The death occurred on Sunday of Mrs. Miriam Ridett, aged 79, of 7 Chapel Street, who came to the Island in the early years of the century. She was a former cook at Whitecroft Hospital but, in 1908 married the late Mr. Langworthy, a baker of East Cowes. She resided for a short time at Sandown but had lived in Chapel Street for many years, with her second husband Mr. W. Ridett, who was a trawlerman in his younger days and, later, a ganger on the Island Railways. Mrs. Ridett, who leaves five daughters, four by her first marriage, was a keen member of the W.R.V.S. Darby and Joan Club.
