NEWPORT

Honour for Telephonist. – On Friday week at the Ryde Telephone Exchange, Miss E. M. Tayler, of Whitepit Lane, who recently retired from the post of assistant supervisor there after 36 years' service, was presented with the Imperial Service Medal for her long and meritorious service. The presentation was made by the Head Postmaster (Mr. H. J. Cohu), who spoke appreciatively of Miss Taylor's service. It is many years since such an award was made to a Post Office woman employee in this district.
