NEWPORT

Death of Mr. E. F. White.- The death occurred on Wednesday morning of Mr. Edward (Ted) Francis White, who has been for some 14 years the popular licensee of the Rose and Crown. Mr. White, who was 61, was formerly a well known salesman in the Portsmouth Fish Market, and was the youngest son of the late Mr. William White, of Old Point, Portsmouth, also a prominent fish salesman. Mr. Ted White was a keen bowler and a former member of the Bush Bowling Club at Southsea. He leaves a widow, a son and a daughter whose husband is in the Navy. The funeral took place yesterday (Friday), the first part of the service being in the Newport Parish Church.
