NEWPORT

DEATH OF AN ODDFELLOWS. – The death yesterday (Friday) morning of Mr. Edward James Wilton, aged 61, at his residence, 22 Cavendish-place, deprives the Earl Yarborough Lodge of Oddfellows of an active official, who had done valuable work. He was a Trustee of the Lodge for many years, and secretary of the juvenile branch, as well as Past Provincial Grand Master of the District. He was devoted to friendly society work, and will be greatly missed. Decease was for many years the local manager for Messrs. Dixon and Cardus, and afterwards chief storeman of the I.W. Farmers' Trading Society. The funeral will take place on Monday, when the first part of the service will be held at the Castlehold Baptist Church at 2.30 p.m.
