Death of Miss Primrose Wolfe.---The death occurred on Saturday at 45 Stockmore Street, Oxford, of Miss Marion Primrose Wolfe, aged 54, who will be remembered by many residents as the courteous assistant in her father's former greengrocery and fruiterer's business at 34 Nodehill, which she left 24 years ago to take up an appointment with Messrs. Gee and Sons, fruiterers, of the Market, Oxford, by whom she had been employed since. The funeral took place on Wednesday, a service being held at Carisbrooke Church. It was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. D. S. McKenzie) and included the hymn "Lead us, Heavenly Father." The mourners were Mr. and Mrs. T. Nobbs (brother-in-law and sister), Messrs. Gordon and Michael Nobbs (nephews), Mrs. H. C. Taylor (cousin, representing Mr. Taylor), Mesdames L. W. Padwick and P. A. Verry (cousins), Mr. and Mrs. G. Tomlinson, and Mrs. L. Tyrell. Others at the church included Capt. and Mrs. H. J. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Gwilliam, Mesdames A. G. Randall (representing Mr. Randall), D. H. Pay, H. Phillips (cousin, also representing Mr. Phillips), V. Pitman, and K. Johnson, and the Misses F. L. Cantelo (cousin) and J. Fleming. Interment followed at Carisbrooke Cemetery. Messrs. O. C. Hamilton and Son made the arrangements.
