

Clement Sneyd Brimson

Isle of Wight Country Press – 10 May 1930

NEWPORT.

NONAGENARIAN RESIDENT'S DEATH. – The death occurred on Saturday at Carisbrooke-road, at the age of 91, of Mr. Clement Sneyd Brimson. Deceased will be remembered by the older inhabitants of the town as a former much respected tradesman, he having later carried on business in Ventnor, whence he went to the north of England, returning some 20 years ago. Mr. Brimson had enjoyed good health until January, when the death of his wife dealt him a blow from which he never fully recovered. The funeral took place on Tuesday, the Rev. H. S. Footman officiating in the presence of members of the family.

Transcription by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport and Carisbrooke Cemeteries, © 2020
<https://www.foncc.org.uk>