

Louisa Ann Buckler

Isle of Wight County Press – 7 March 1928

NEWPORT.

DEATH OF MRS. T. S. BUCKLER. – The death took place at Richmond House, Union-street, on Sunday, following a short illness from bronchitis, of an aged and much esteemed resident of the borough in the person of Mrs. Louisa Ann Buckler, widow of Ald. T. S. Buckler. The deceased, who was 84 years of age, had enjoyed remarkably good health until she contracted a cold during the recent severe weather, and this developed into bronchitis. The funeral took place on Thursday, a service at St. John's Church preceding the interment at Carisbrooke Cemetery, the Rev. W. H. Mackinnon (vicar) officiating. The mourners were Messrs. T. and W. D. Buckler (sons), Mesdames Joyce and Latimer (daughters), Messrs. H. H. and A. B. Gould (son-in-law and grandson), and Miss Cheverton (niece). Those also present at the church were Mr. and Mrs. W. Guy, Mr. J. B. Alderslade, the Misses Newbery, and Mesdames Jeffery and Jones. There were a number of beautiful floral tributes. Mr. O. C. Hamilton made the arrangements.

Transcription by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport & Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2020
<https://www.foncc.org.uk>