

Frederick Henry Burt

1891 census – 57 Trafalgar Road, Carisbrooke

George W Burt	Head	45	Stationary Engine Driver	Newport, Isle of Wight
Elizabeth Burt	Wife	43		Fordingbridge, Hampshire
Frederick Burt	Son	21	General Labourer	Newport, Isle of Wight
Charles Burt	Son	18	Sailor, R.N.	Newport, Isle of Wight
Alfred Burt	Son	16	General Labourer	Newport, Isle of Wight
Arthur Newbury	Adopted	1		Cowes, Isle of Wight

Isle of Wight County Press – 11 February 1893

NEWPORT.

A FORESTER'S FUNERAL. – On Thursday afternoon the funeral of Mr. Frederick Henry Burt, of Trafalgar-road, who died somewhat suddenly on Sunday last from the after effects of influenza, took place at Carisbrooke Cemetery, the Vicar of Carisbrooke (the Rev. C. Eddy) officiating. The mourners included the Chief Ranger (Bro. R. Mytton) and about 30 members of the Court Island Foresters, 1821, and a similar number of the members of the St. John's Men's Bible-class, with their leader Mr. J. Eldridge, jun., of both of which deceased was a member; the deceased's employer, Mr. Ald. C. J. Dashwood, C.C.; and the employees at the Carisbrooke Brewery. The Foresters' burial service was read at the grave by Bro. R. Mytton, C.R.

Transcription by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport & Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2020
<https://www.foncc.org.uk>