NEWPORT.

REMOVED TO THE ASYLUM. – On Wednesday Janet Grace Dempster, a young women presenting a miserably neglected and dejected appearance, who was living alone in Lower Field-place, was charged before the Mayor with wandering aboard whilst of unsound mind without being under proper control. Chief Inspector Ayres and Dr. Thompson having given evidence, an order was made for the defendant's removal to the County Asylum, whither she was conveyed under the direction of the relieving officer (Mr. H.W. Horan).
