NEWPORT.

A GOOD SERVANT AND GENEROUS MASTERS. – We regret to record the death of Mr. George Denyer, which occurred on Wednesday last, at the age of 58. The deceased was for nearly 30 years in the employ of Messrs. W. B. Mew, Langton, and Co., who, with characteristic kindness, continued his full wages during the whole period of his long illness. This fact is communicated to us by a personal friend of the deceased's, who further writes: "Throughout all the years that Mr. Denyer was in the service of the Royal Brewery firm he commanded the confidence of his employers and the esteem of his fellow workmen. His relatives, whilst deeply deploring his loss, find consolation in, and are sincerely grateful for, much kindness shown to him by the firm during his long and painful illness, borne without a murmur."
