Death of Mrs. G. H. Henton.—A greatly esteemed resident for upwards of 80 years had been removed by the passing on Friday week at Loverstone Farm of Mrs. Henton, widow of Mr. George Henry Henton. The deceased, who had reached the good age of 87, had been afflicted with rheumatism for many years. She had been confined to her bed for two months and devotedly nursed by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. Henton. The late Mrs. Henton was the daughter of the late Mr. Micah Morris, of Loverstone Farm. Her husband pre-deceased her 26 years ago. There was a family of eight children, seven of whom are living. Three sons are farming in New Zealand. Much sympathy is felt with the relatives in their bereavement. Her mortal remains were laid to rest beside those of her husband at Carisbrooke Cemetery on Tuesday.

The personal mourners were Mr. A. Henton (son), Mrs. R. Y. Morgan and Mrs. C. H. Cowdery (daughters), Mr. A. Henton, jun., and Mr. R. H. Morgan (grandsons), Miss F. Cowdery (grand-daughter), Mrs. A. Henton (daughter-in-law), Mr. H. Morris, and Mr. C. H. Cowdery (sons-in-law), and Messrs. A. Thomas, Hilton, H. P., and Fred Morris (cousins). Amongst those also attending were Mr. M. Silsbury (Shanklin), Mr. W. Moore, Mr. G. Linington (Calbourne), Mr. R. Russell (Chillerton Farm), Mrs. A. Butcher (Arreton), Mrs. W. F. Morris (Rookley), Miss N. Westmore, Mrs. E. and Miss E. Prangnell. Mrs. H. Morris (daughter), Mr. R. Y. Morgan, R.D.C. (son-in-law), and Mrs. J. Kingswell (grand-daughter) were prevented from attending by indisposition.

The Rev. Dr. W. H. Mildon, who officiated, paid a glowing tribute to deceased's Christian life and noble character. He said he felt all the better for having met her, and hoped her children would have strength to bear their sorrow at losing such a devoted mother. The floral mementoes were numerous and lovely. The arrangements were efficiently carried out by Mr. A. A. Westmore, of Blackwater.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Henton wish to thank their numerous friends for sympathy shown in their sad bereavement, also Dr. S. Foster for his unfailing kindness and attention, and all sending floral tributes.
