RAILWAY SIGNALMAN'S DEATH. – We regret to record the death of Mr. Thomas Jones, of Gwynfa, Clarence-road, which took place on Saturday week after a short illness. The deceased, who had resided in the town for upwards of 18 years, was a signalman on the Southern Railway. Of a retiring disposition, he was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends for his genial and straight-forward character. The funeral took place on Thursday at Carisbrooke Cemetery. Prior to the interment a service was held at Castlehold Baptist Church, conducted by the Pastor (the Rev. R. G. Thomas), who paid a tribute to the excellent qualities of the deceased. There was a representative gathering and many of the deceased's colleagues, and the officials and staff at Newport-station were present. The chief mourners were Mr. Harold Jones (son), Insp. Nicholas, G.W.R. Oswestry (brother-in-law), Mrs. Clifton (Bournemouth) and Mrs. Wilson, Moat-lane (sisters-in-law), Lieut. and Sergt-Major Marshall (nephews). The deepest sympathy is expressed with Mrs. Jones and her so in their bereavement. Messrs. H. F. Damp were the undertakers.
