The Late Mr. B. Knight.—Mr. Bertram Knight (54), proprietor of a ladies' shoe shop at 56 Pyle Street, Newport, died at the Royal I.W. County Hospital, on Tuesday after being taken suddenly ill at his home earlier in the day. For 15 years Mr. Knight had run the business which his father established in 1900. During the last war he served with The R.A.F. in the Middle East, at Tangmere in Sussex, and for a period at Bowcombe Down direction-finding station on the Island. Mr. Knight bred budgerigars and exhibited budgerigars for many years, and was a noted trophy-winner at shows staged by Carisbrooke and District Fanciers' Club, where he was also a Judge. In recent years he was stage-electrician for Newport Repertory Club productions. His resignation on grounds of ill Health was announced at the recent annual meeting. He leaves a widow and a daughter. The funeral service takes place to-day at Newport Congregational Church at 11.30 a.m.
