NEWPORT

Death of an Old Tradesman.—We regret to record the death of Mr. William Moorman, of the firm of Messrs. Moorman and Son, an old and respected tradesman, which took place on Sunday last at the age of 69. Deceased was well known for the beautiful specimens of cabinet making which he, as a model workman of the old school, turned out from his business premises here. He was favoured with many orders for the Queen's Island palace at Osborne, and enjoyed a good business connection. It may be mentioned here that the firm of Messrs. Moorman and Son are Royal tradesmen by appointment, and "Osborne" was presented at the funeral by Mr. G. Woodford, who occupies a responsible position there. The funeral took place at Carisbrooke Cemetery on Thursday last, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. R. L. Monck Mason. The chief mourners were Mr. J. Moorman (son), Mr. M. and Miss Moorman, Mr. G. Moorman, Mrs. G. Morris, Mr. J. Morris, Mr. G. Creeth, Mrs. Jolliffe, Mr. J. Rayner, Mr. M. Rayner, Mrs. Rayner, Mr. Cole, Mr. Warne, Mr. Scott, and Mr. Farmer. The following employees of the firm also attended: Messrs. Dore, Saunders, Collard, and Adams. The deceased's wife pre-deceased him. Mr. S. Salter was the undertaker. "By request", there were no flowers.
