NEWPORT.

Death of Mr. H. Nidd. - The death took place at his residence, 41 Carisbrooke Road, on Wednesday, of Mr. Harold Nidd, aged 74. A native of Boston, Lincs., Mr. Nidd came to the Island from Salisbury 33 years ago and took up a position as outside manager, dealing with agricultural machinery and requisites with Messrs. Arthur Wood, of Pyle Street. In this capacity he was a regular attendant and familiar figure at the market, and was well known to the agricultural community. Mr. Nidd had few interests outside his work, but was formerly a skilful billiards and snooker player, and a member of the Conservative Club. Latterly, his sight had prevented enjoyment of his favourite game. He leaves a widow, son and daughter. The funeral service will take place today at St. John's Church at 3 p.m.
