PORCHFIELD.

The Late Mr. W. E. Pragnell. – The death occurred on Tuesday week at St. Mary's Hospital, Newport, of Mr. William Elias Pragnell, of Locks Green, aged 66. Mr. Pragnell was a native of Wootton Bridge and for most of his life had been employed in farming. He started Locks Green Dairy about 19 years ago. During the war years, when he was employed on the County Council road staff, his wife and daughter carried on the dairy work. The funeral took place at Carisbrooke Cemetery on Saturday, the Rev. F. W. Hargraves, of Cowes, officiating. The mourners were Mrs. Pragnell (widow), Miss Pragnell (daughter), Mr. and Mrs. O. Flux, Mr. and Mrs. A. Flux, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Flux (brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law), Mrs. E. Gange, and Mrs. F. Strickland (sisters-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Chandler, Mr. S. Buckett, Mrs. H. Buckett, Messrs. H. and B. Strickland, Mr. and Mrs. Loader, Mrs. E. Pitman, Mrs. I. Butchers, Mr. C. Gange, and Mr. S. Buckett (nephews and nieces). Many neighbours and friends also attended.
