DEATH OF MR. GEORGE SHEATH. – A well-known and much respected citizen of Newport has passed away in the person of Mr. George Sheath, whose death occurred at his residence, Vale Meade, Carisbrooke-road, on Wednesday last, at the age of 76. For many years the deceased carried on a prosperous business in St. James's-street, Newport, from which he retired nearly 20 years ago. An ardent floriculturist, he devoted many of his leisure hours to his parterres and his conservatories, and very brilliant was his display of blooms in there season. His widow and other bereaved relatives have the deep sympathy of the whole community. The funeral takes place at Carisbrooke at 12.30 to-day.
