DEATH OF MR. ROBERT STRATTON. – We regret to record the death of Mr. Robert Stratton, who had been for some time in failing health, but the end came very suddenly yesterday week. Years ago the deceased carried on the well-known building business which his father had previously conducted, and in later life he changed his vocation, becoming the proprietor of Warburton's Hotel, and at a subsequent period he was appointed assistant overseer for Newport. The funeral took place at Carisbrooke Cemetery on Monday, the chief mourners being Messrs. Philip, Walter, Godwin, and Arthur Stratton (sons), Mr. Fredc. Stratton (brother), and Mr. H. Eldridge Stratton (nephew). The Rev. A.H.C. Edlin, curate of Carisbrooke, was the officiating clergyman.
