NEWPORT.

DEATH OF MRS. STROH. – The death occurred last week, under painfully sudden circumstances, of Mrs. Stroh, of Field Cottage, mother of Miss Stroh, the well-known teacher of music. The deceased, who came to reside here some years ago on account of her daughter's health, possesses most estimable qualities, and was never happier than when doing some kind deed. She was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. James Robertson, of Midlothian, Scotland. Her husband, who predeceased her before she came to the Island, was a gifted musician, and was at one time organist at Rigby. The greatest sympathy is felt for Miss Stroh and her brother in their irreparable loss. The funeral, conducted by the Rev. W. H. Mackinnon, took place at Carisbrooke Cemetery on Friday week. There were a number of beautiful floral tributes.
