NEWPORT

Death of Mrs. E. W. Tyler.— Sincere sympathy is felt with one of the borough's oldest and most esteemed tradesmen, Mr. E. W. Tyler, of Oaklands, Castle-road, in the death of his wife, who passed away on Wednesday after 56 years' of married life. She had been ill since just before Christmas. Mrs Tyler, who was 80, was a sister of the late Mr. G. F. Quinton, and a lady whose charming sympathy made her beloved by all. She had shared her husband's interest in Christian work in the town, having been a member of the Community of Brethren worshipping at the Holyrood-hall for many years. Here Mrs. Tyler and her sister-in-law (Mrs. G. F. Quinton) were joint leaders of a weekly woman's meeting, a work which was very near her heart. During the last war she opened her home to the troops and some of the friendships she then made lasted until her death. Mrs. Tyler had a family of seven, of whom one daughter and four sons survive. The funeral service will be at the Holyrood-hall to-morrow (Sunday) at 2.30 p.m.
