

Ernest James White

1911 Census, 8 Field Place, Newport

Samuel White	Head	34	Brewer's Labourer	Newport, Isle of Wight
Alice Mary White	Wife	33		Newport, Isle of Wight
Ernest James Bull	[Step] Son	15	Baker's Errand Boy	Newport, Isle of Wight
Edward Harry Bull	Brother-in-law	36	No Occupation	Newport, Isle of Wight
Eileen May	Visitor	2		Ilford, Essex, England

Isle of Wight County Press – 16 March 1918

NEWPORT.

MILITARY FUNERAL. - The funeral of Sergt. E. White, Worcestershire Regiment, took place at Carisbrooke Cemetery, with military honours, on Thursday. Deceased passed away at Fulham Military Hospital as the result of wounds received in France on August 16 last. The mourners were deceased's parents, sister, and grandparents, Messrs. F. Bull, H. Harding, and Sergt.-Major Mew (uncles), Miss Bull, Miss K. Bull, Mrs. J. Bull, and Mrs. A. Bull (aunts), and Miss M. Harding (cousin). There were beautiful flowers, including those from the staff and scholars of the Newport C.E. School and from the nursing staff and comrades in D2 Ward, Fulham Military Hospital. Sergt. White was an old National School boy, and as the funeral cortege passed the boys stood at the salute in the play-ground, and the flag was flying at half-mast. Deceased joined the Worcestershire Regiment at Parkhurst in 1911, proceeded to France in August, 1914, and was wounded there in the following July. After serving in Gallipoli and Egypt he returned to France in March, 1916.

Transcription by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport & Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2019

<https://www.foncc.org.uk>