The Late Mrs. A. Symons.- The death occurred on Saturday of Mrs. Amelia Symons, aged 87, of 46 Trafalgar Road. Born at Cowes. Mrs. Symons was a member of the well-known Ward family and came here in 1917. She was employed at Messrs. A. E. Harvey's Restaurant for 31 years. Mrs. Symons was a member of many local organisations. On Tuesdays she attended the Sisterhood, on Wednesdays the Wayfarers' Women's Hour, on Thursdays the R.T.A., and on Fridays the Holyrood Hall Women's Hour, where she was known for her ability to recite long poems until quite recently. Her husband died about 18 months ago. The funeral took place on Saturday at Carisbrooke Cemetery, the service being conducted by the Rev. D. W. H. Mildon. The mourners were Mr. G. Symons (son), Miss L. Symons (daughter), Mrs. E. Grist (sister), and Mesdames Vine and J. Grist (nieces). Messrs. Harvey's Restaurant and the Wayfarers Women's Hour were also represented. The arrangements were made by Messrs. Moorman and Son.
