NEWPORT

THE FUNERAL – took place at Newport Cemetery on Sunday afternoon of the late Mr. Joseph Pitman Fuller, of 26, Holyrood-street, who died on the previous Thursday at the age of 60. Deceased was a Forester of many years' standing, an old and much respected employee of Messrs. James Thomas and Co., Limited, and he belonged to the Congregational Church. In addition to relatives the mourners included nearly all the employees of Messrs. James Thomas and Co. Limited, with Mr. James Thomas, J.P., C.C., Mr. Leigh Thomas, and other members of the firm and clerical staff, and a good muster of the members of Court Island Foresters, including the Chief Ranger, Bro. E. F. Wray, who read the Foresters' burial service at the grave. The Rev. C. H. Davis officiated. Among the floral mementos was a wreath bearing the inscription "With deepest sympathy from the members of the firm and employees of James Thomas and Co., Limited."
