Death of Mrs. Hooton.- The death occurred at Roach's Hotel, Quay-street, on Tuesday, of Mrs. Annie Elizabeth Hooton, aged 60, widow of Mr. Frederick J. Hooton, of the Royal Fusiliers, a lady well known as the extremely able and highly esteemed proprietress of the hotel for the last 21 years: some 10 years at its present address at 41 Quay-street, and formerly at premises in St. James's-square, where it had been carried on for many years. Mrs. Hooton, whose maiden name was Turner, an old Colwell family, had been in impaired health for some four years, and seriously ill for a year. Much sympathy is felt with her daughter and son-in-law (Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Jolliffe) in their bereavement. The funeral took place yesterday (Friday), a service being held in the Parish Church and the interment at Newport Cemetery.

The Late Mrs. Hooton.- The funeral of Mrs. A. E. Hooton, of Roach's Hotel, took place on Friday, a service being held in St. Thomas's Church and the interment in her husband's grave in Newport Cemetery. The Rev. L. J. D. Wheatley officiated, and the organist (Miss Kathleen Lower) accompanied the hymn "I heard the voice of Jesus" and played "Angels over bright and fair," "I know that my Redeemer liveth," and "O rest in the Lord." The chief mourners were Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Jolliffe (son-in-law and daughter), Mesdames Peachey and Bound (sisters), Mrs. Newman Turner (sister-in-law), Mrs. W. Hurdle (cousin), Messrs. H. Jolliffe, G. Reynolds, G. Hewitt, and A. Wood, and Mesdames J. Bowers, A. H. Frogbrooke, Feaver, and Moses. Messrs. Newman Turner and T. Turner (brothers), and Mrs. Elderfield (aunt) were unavoidably prevented from attending. Others in the church were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jolliffe, Mrs. Arthur Wood, Mrs. Smith, Miss Day, Miss Cox, Miss Wray, Miss Harding, Mrs. Poole, and Mrs. Hewitt, and Messrs. C. S. Good and E. R. Dore, C.C. The arrangements were made by Mr. F. Groundsell.
