NEWPORT

DEATH OF MRS. MORGAN. – Much sympathy has been expressed with Mr. Fred Morgan, a former member of the Town Council and well-known tradesman, in the great loss he has suffered by the death of his wife, after a very short illness at their residence, Stuart House, Holyrood-street, on Saturday, at the age of 64. The deceased, who was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. Samuel Brooks, implement manufacturer, of Stourbridge, Worcestershire, had always most devotedly identified her-self with the active Masonic work of her husband, who is P.G.S. of the Albany Lodge, and she had a great many votes for the Boys' and Girls' Benevolent Institution. She was also interested in church work, and in this and other public circles will be greatly missed. The funeral took place on Wednesday. The first part of the service was held at the Parish Church and was jointly conducted by the Revs. Canon C. H. Thompson and W. H. Mackinnon. The large attendance included the Mayor and Mayoress (Mr. H. W. and Miss A. D. Horan), 40 members of the Albany Lodge of Freemasons, and 20 members of the Castlehold Club. The mourners were Mr. Fred Morgan, Mrs. Hellawell (The Rectory, Wick), Mrs. Alice Taylor, Skegness (sister), Miss Katie Hellawell (niece), Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Addison, Stourbridge (cousins), Mr. G. Morgan, Rugby (brother-in-law), Mr. Tony Squires, Rugby (nephew), Mrs. Kitty Haygate, Rugby (niece), Mr. and Mrs. M. Kime, and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wray. The interment was at Newport Cemetery. There were a great many lovely floral tributes. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. H. Bullock and Son.
