NEWPORT.

DEATH OF AN OLD INHABITANT. – After a lengthened illness, Mr. William Dore, of 159, High-street, an old and respected inhabitant of Newport, quietly passed away, in his eightieth year, on Tuesday last. The deceased had carried on the business of a grocer and baker in the High-street for half a century, and he was, we believe, the oldest tradesman in Newport. The funeral of the deceased took place at Newport Cemetery yesterday (Friday), and the manifestation of mourning exhibited in the neighbourhood where he had so long lived showed the high respect in which he was held.

National Probate Calendar 13 April 1888
