

James Luxton Manning

1891 census, Alvington Manor, Carisbrooke

James L Manning	Head	60	Farmer	Topsham, Devon
Caroline Manning	Wife	59		Whitwell, Isle of Wight, Hampshire
Robert B Wilkins	Son-in-law	39	Surgeon	Newport, Isle of Wight, Hampshire
Mary Ann Pearce	Visitor	40		Newport, Isle of Wight, Hampshire
Mary Lindsey		22	Servant, Domestic	Northwood, Isle of Wight, Hampshire

Portsmouth Evening News - Thursday 16 February 1905

NEWPORT COUNCILLOR'S SUDDEN DEATH.

Newport, I.W., Thursday.

Mr. Manning, Chairman of the Highways Committee of the Rural District Council, died very suddenly at his residence, 88, Alexandra-terrace, Newport, this morning. He had not been well, but managed to get about until yesterday. He was 75 years of age. The facts have been imparted to the Coroner.

Portsmouth Evening News - Saturday 18 February 1905

NEWPORT

INQUEST ON THE LATE MR. MANNING.

On Friday the Deputy Coroner (Mr. F. A. Joyce) held an inquest on the body of Mr. James Luxton Manning, of Newport, Chairman of the Highways Committee of the Rural District Council, whose sudden death in his sleep during Wednesday night was reported on Thursday. - Dr. Coombs, who made a post mortem, attributed death to a rupture of the pulmonary artery, and a verdict of "Death from natural causes" was returned. The Coroner remarked on the efficient public service rendered by deceased, and a vote of sympathy with the relatives was passed by the jury.

Portsmouth Evening News - Tuesday 21 February 1905

ISLE OF WIGHT

LATE MR. J. L. MANNING'S FUNERAL.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, at Newport Cemetery, of the late Mr. James Luxton Manning, of Newport, Chairman of the Highways Committee of the Rural District Council and member of Island public authorities. The Rev. W. R. K. Baulkwill, President of the Bible Christian Conference, officiated, and there was a large attendance of members and officials of the Isle of Wight Board of Guardians, Isle of Wight Rural District Council, and Carisbrooke Parish Council, of which deceased was a member.

Transcriptions by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport & Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2018

<https://www.foncc.org.uk>