NEWPORT.

A WELL-KNOWN FORM – is gone from us in the person of Mr. Edward Matthews, who died at the Cemetery-lodge on Monday last, at the age of 86. The deceased, who was much respected, had been curator of the Newport Cemetery from, we believe, its formation, and there where his face was so familiar he finds his last resting-place. Years ago he enjoyed a considerable reputation as a cricketer, and he never lost his interest in the game. So long as his health permitted, he was a regular at local matches, and he never tired of talking of exploits which he witnessed or of memorable contests in which he took part in the “good old days.”.
