

DEATH OF MR. FRED PRANGNELL

We regret to record the death, after a painful illness extending over three months, of Mr. Fred Prangnell, for 29 years the genial landlord of the Cooper's Arms and a highly esteemed townsman, at the age of 53. Deceased was formerly familiar at the auction sales of Messrs. Henry J. Way and Son, in whose employ he was for many years. In late years he had been in the motor business at the Broadlands Garage, and was for some years the representative of the Shell Motor Spirit Company. He was a keen sportsman, and a generous supporter of local sport, being a vice-president of the Newport Football Club. He was one of the moving spirits in carnival promotion at Newport, and was a successful organiser of efforts for charitable and other deserving objects, and a true and kind-hearted friend. Much sympathy is felt for his widow and other relatives in their loss. The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon, and the interment will be at Newport Cemetery.
