

Henry Arthur Quantrill

Isle of Wight County Press – 30 December 1950

NEWPORT.

The Late Mr. H. A. Quantrill. – The death occurred on Friday week, at 142 High Street, of Mr. Henry Arthur Quantrill, aged 87. Mr. Quantrill was the owner of a confectionery business at that address for about 50 years, until his retirement in 1940. He had been in ill-health for many years following an injury while serving in the South African War. He was a good all-round sportsman in his youth, having played football for Cowes. Mr. Quantrill was a member of the Newport Bowling Club and of the Conservative Club. The funeral service took place on Wednesday at St. Thomas's Church, followed by the interment at Newport Cemetery. The Vicar (the Rev. C. R. Farnsworth) officiated. The mourners were Mr. J. G. Downer (grandson), Mr. G. H. Downer (son-in-law), Sergt. Whitewood and Mr. J. Truscott (representing Mesdames Whitewood and J. Truscott, grand-daughters). The arrangements were made by Messrs. H. and F. Damp.
