Hampshire Advertiser – 25 August 1883

NEWPORT.

DEATH OF AN AGED CORPORATION SERVANT. – On Tuesday evening ex-Town-sergeant Salter died at his residence in the 80th year of his age. For nearly fifty years he had been in the service of the Corporation, and about two years ago he was allowed a pension on retiring from his office. The deceased has been subjected to a lingering and painful illness, which terminated his life on Tuesday, as before stated. By the removal of ex-Town-sergeant Salter the Corporation loses an official who has been much respected.
