NEWPORT

TRADEMAN'S DEATH – We regret to record the death, which took place on Thursday, of Mr. Alfred Smith, tailor, of Trowbridge House, Pyle-street, at the age of 46. The deceased had been in failing health for some time, but the news of the end came unexpectedly to his many friends, whose sincere sympathy will be with the widow and young family in their irreparable bereavement. The late Mr. Smith was a prominent member of the local branch of the Hampshire Friendly Society and of other clubs and was much respected.
