

Alfred Upward

Hampshire Advertiser – 13 February 1875

DEATHS.

On the 11th inst., at Newport, Isle of Wight, Mr. Alfred Upward, of the firm of E.J. and A. Upward, of Pyle-street, provision merchant, aged 38.

Hampshire Telegraph – 17 February 1875

ISLE OF WIGHT

NEWPORT

DEATH OF MR.A. UPWARD. – On Friday last, Mr. Alfred Upward, of the firm of Messrs. E.J. Upward and Co., died at his residence, Broadlands-terrace, at the early age of 38, after a short illness. Mr. Upward, who was very much esteemed, was buried at Newport Cemetery on Monday, when most of the tradesmen of Newport, to show their respect for his character, put up their shutters. After a short religious service at the house of the deceased, the coffin was borne to the Cemetery by the employes of the firm. The chief mourners were the four brothers of the deceased, Messrs. E.J., G., F., and I. Upward. A considerable number of friends joined the funeral procession. The funeral service was read by the deceased's pastor, the Rev. M. Newland. Mr. Upward has left a widow, but no family..

Transcription by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport & Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2018
<https://www.foncc.org.uk>