

Susanna Butchers Vibert

Hampshire Advertiser – 8 November 1882

ISLE OF WIGHT

NEWPORT.

THE DEAD MARCH IN SAUL was played by the organist at the Wesleyan Chapel, on Sunday morning, after the usual service, as a mark of respect for the late Mrs. Vibert, who for many years was an esteemed member of the congregation. The deceased was the mother of Mr. Benjamin Vibert, who is a prominent member and office-bearer in the above church.

Hampshire Advertiser – 11 November 1882

DEATHS.

On the 4th inst., at 12, St. Thomas's-square, Newport, Isle of Wight, Susanna Butchers Vibert, aged 76.

Transcriptions by Tony Barton for the Friends of Newport & Carisbrooke Cemeteries © 2018
<https://www.foncc.org.uk>