NEWPORT

NONAGENARIAN'S DEATH. – The death occurred at Lansdown, Shide-cross, on Tuesday last, of Mrs. Mary Waterman, widow of the late Mr. William Waterman, a farm bailiff, of Walhampton Boldre, Hants. The deceased lady, who was a native of the Island and a very old and highly respected inhabitant of Newport, had attained almost centenarian celebrity, her age being 98. The venerable and estimable lady retained her faculties almost until the last, and she was of a most kindly and generous nature. The funeral took place at Newport Cemetery yesterday (Friday) afternoon, the first portion of the service being conducted at the Parish-church by the Vicar (the Rev. H. Edmund Sharpe)..
